

August 16th, 2019 | MCCCUC Renovation and Construction Update

The expansion of our original Main Office building is really starting to come together this week. The brickwork is progressing very quickly, and we've been told after a few months the grout will be an exact match to the original building.

Building Expansion

North Building

In just a couple of weeks we went from a cement foundation to what you see now. Our North Building (official name TBD) will house a number of our back office departments, a community room, and space to accommodate future growth of the credit union.
