

June 28th, 2019 | MCCCUC Renovation and Construction Update

While a lot of progress is happening behind and north of our Main Office, things have really started to kick off inside the branch! We've are moving onto the next phase of construction and along with that comes more movement! The next time you have an appointment with a Member Relationship Specialist, you may step into an office space you've never been in before!

Newly Renovated Hallway

Old Office Space

Temporary Office Space

As ever, we appreciate your patience and understanding as we do our best to work through all the ups and downs that come with operating a business while being under construction!
