

May 22nd, 2019 | MCCCUC Renovation and Construction Update

Things are starting to happen on the exterior of the branch, including (finally!) the first step in replacing our parking lot. We appreciate everyone's patience in regards to the temporary closure on our Fredericks Drive approach, but we can certainly all share in the excitement of the beginning of this process.

Fredericks Approach

North of the Parking Lot

The NAPA building demolition was pushed back, but we do anticipate it will be coming down sometime in within the next week. We will continue to create birds-eye view updates of the construction as well, so keep checking back for the latest look of what's happening at 715 N. Telegraph!